

Hi, I'm one of the mascots at Certified Interpreting Services. My job is to help you to achieve your linguistic mission - whatever that looks like to you. You might have seen me on the website or even on the odd poster or leaflet, but how well do you really know me? I've put together a super short quiz so you can test your knowledge. Don't worry if you get stuck as all of the answers can be found on the CIS website. Just scan the QR code to get there!
